

THE F Y R STORY

Our live fire kitchen showcases the thrill and versatility of a cooking method that humans have refined over many thousands of years. We stack the fire pit with kiln-dried oak each morning, tending to it throughout the day. Once the embers glow and the air is sweet with woodsmoke the theatre begins. Watch our chefs sear and sauté directly on the coals as rising smoke infuses slow roasts with toasty, tangy aromas.

THWAITES

...ALWAYS HAS BEEN

When Daniel Thwaites, a farmer's son from the Lake District, founded a small Blackburn brewery in 1807, his appetite for adventure created something amazing. Our sixth-generation family business still brews lovely beers, but we've become a collection of hotels, spas, inns and pubs in extraordinary landscapes, cities and communities. From our Lancashire roots to the Lakes, Dales, Cotswolds and South Coast, every Thwaites destination is a one-off.

You'll know you have found one by the way it makes you feel.

Hotels & Spas

Get creative, get celebrating or get some 'you' time. Our hotels are perfectly placed for gatherings and getaways with friends, family and colleagues. Dreamy beds and soothing wellness spaces turn stopovers into spa breaks, while relaxed restaurants and flexible function rooms inspire big ideas and deep conversations.

Inns

Ghosts, artists and outlaws have made themselves at home in our inns for centuries - and who could blame them? From cosy walkers' pubs to intriguing city landmarks, each of these gems is an adventure in waiting. Muddy boots and (not-too) muddy dogs are always welcome by the fire and the next perfect pint has your name on it.

Pubs

Fancy a lovely pint and a welcome that makes your day? Our tenants are the only landlords in the world who can fill your glass with tasty Thwaites ale. From Morecambe Bay to the Yorkshire Dales, Greater Manchester to the Midlands, Thwaites pubs are cherished by the communities that call them local. Call in and you'll feel like a local too.

Beers

Thwaites beer has a big reputation for quality, but it's made on a small scale. Our brewers use their senses - not machines - to guide every gallon from grist to cask and keg, creating traditional ales, zesty pales and seasonal specials that respect our long history while being exactly what you want to drink now. Available here today - Cheers!
